

Contrail

SEPTEMBER 2009, VOL. 43, NO. 9

FEATURES

A letter from NJANG
Commander (Page 3)

Remembering 9/11
(Page 5)

Air Show wows crowd
(Page 6)

Hispanic Americans
making the sacrifice
(Page 11)

AND MORE...

DEPARTMENTS

COMMANDER'S COLUMN
(PAGE 4)

JERSEY DEVILS IN THE NEWS
(PAGE 7)

NEWS AIRMEN CAN USE
(PAGE 10)

COVER

NEW WORLD PERSPECTIVE

*A 177th Fighter Wing F-16
Fighting Falcon banks over the Atlantic Ocean on August 19.
U.S. Air Force photo by Tech.
Sgt. James L. Harper Jr.*

Newest Chaplain's Assistant

Hello, I am Master Sgt. Diane Johnson and I would like to introduce myself as the newest member and Chaplain Assistant to the 177th Chaplain Corps.

It is an honor and a privilege for me to have this opportunity to join Chaplains' (Lt. Col.) Dean Wentzien, (Maj.) Floyd White III, (Capt.) Thomas Ganley and Chaplain Assistant Tech. Sgt. Eric Corry.

I have been a Chaplain's Assistant for more than 12 years and have been blessed with numerous opportunities to support the 514th Air Mobility Wing at McGuire Air Force Base through several deployments including Prince Sultan Air Base, Saudi Arabia; Al Dafra AB, United Arab Emirates; Seeb AB, Oman; Ali Al Salem AB, Kuwait and lastly Bagram AB, Afghanistan from January to May 2008.

You may ask why I have joined the Air National Guard after serving with the Air Force Reserve. My answer is I still enjoy military life and the opportunity to serve our troops. The Chaplain Corps is a special group. It is career field where you have the opportunity to get paid doing what you love by supporting your fellowman during the best and worst of times, and above all else helping you to serve your God.

As the Non-Commissioned Officer In Charge for the 177th Chaplain Corps my role will be to assist the Chaplains and Chaplain Assistants in providing the best spiritual support service that we possibly can to each Airman at the 177th. Having said this I want you to know that we have an open door policy and I welcome all suggestions and ideas that you wish to share with me and the staff on how we can best be of assistance to you. Over the next few months I look forward to meeting everyone and please do not hesitate to stop by my office or stop me en route to say hello.

To share a verse that a good friend,

Chaplain Seaman that I served with quotes: "As iron sharpens iron, so one man (woman) sharpens another." Proverbs 27:17

Important September dates:

Patriot Day – Sept. 11: Remember 9/11/2001. Patriot Day was signed into law on December 18, 2001 as a day to remember those who lost their lives in the terrorist attacks on our country.

Rosh Hashana – Sept. 19: Jewish New Year. Rosh Hashanah (Hebrew: ראש השנה, literally "head of the year," This Jewish holiday is observed on the first day of Tishrei, the seventh month of the Hebrew calendar, as ordained in the Torah in Leviticus 23:24. Rosh Hashanah is the first of the High Holidays.

Eid ul-Fitr – Sept. 21: Muslim Holiday. Id-ul-Fitr (عيد الفطر I-Fitr), often abbreviated to Eid, is a Muslim holiday that marks the end of Ramadan, the Islamic holy month of fasting. Eid is an Arabic word meaning "festivity", while Fitr means "to break the fast" (and can also mean "nature", from the word "fitrah"); and so the holiday symbolizes the breaking of the fasting period. It is celebrated starting on the first day of the Islamic month of Shawwal. Eid ul-Fitr is a three day celebration and is sometimes also known as the "Smaller Eid."

Yom Kippur – Sept. 27-28: Day of Atonement. (Jewish Day of Atonement which begins at sundown on Sun night, 27 Sep and continues through day Mon 28 Sep. Yom Kippur (Hebrew: יום כפור, IPA: jom kipur), also known in English as the Day of Atonement, is the most solemn and important of the Jewish holidays. Its central themes are atonement and repentance. Jews traditionally observe this holy day with a 25-hour period of fasting and intensive prayer, often spending most of the day in synagogue services.

177FW Editorial Staff

Col. Robert C. Bolton, Commander
Tech. Sgt. Mark Olsen: Editor/Layout/Writer/Photographer
Master Sgt. Laura Moyer: Writer
Master Sgt. Andrew Moseley: Multimedia Manager, Photographer
Master Sgt. Shawn Mildren: Photographer
Staff Sgt. Matt Hecht: Photographer, Editorial Cartoonist
Staff Sgt. Andrew Merlock Jr.: Photographer
177FW/PA, 400 Langley Road, Egg Harbor Township, NJ 08234
(609) 645-6005; (609) 677-6741 (FAX),
Public.Affairs@njatla.ang.af.mil

This funded newspaper is an authorized monthly publication for members of the U.S. Military Services. Contents of the Contrail are not necessarily the official view of, or endorsed by, the U.S. Government, the Department of Defense or the Department of the Air Force. The editorial content is edited, prepared, and provided by the Public Affairs Office of the 177th Fighter Wing. All photographs are Air Force photographs unless otherwise indicated.

JOINT FORCE HEADQUARTERS – AIR COMPONENT
NEW JERSEY AIR NATIONAL GUARD (ANG)
3650 SAYLORS POND ROAD, FORT DIX, NJ 08640-7600

9 September 2009

MEMORANDUM FOR All Member of the 177th Fighter Wing

FROM: NJANG/CC

SUBJECT: Letter of Appreciation

1. The purpose of this letter is to express to you, the men and women of the 177th FW, my appreciation for your continued dedication and commitment to the mission of the 177th. Your work ethic and integrity highlight adherence to the highest standards of the Air Force and the Air National Guard.

2. The 177th FW continues to perform a key function in the defense of our nation and in doing so; you are outstanding representatives of the New Jersey Air National Guard. I am especially proud of your many accomplishments, from meeting the ASA mission and our AEF rotations, to successful inspection outcomes such as the Alert Force Evaluation (AFE), the UCI, the HIS, the ESOHCAMP and others. Likewise, many individuals in the 177th have also been recently recognized for outstanding service and in rank order, they are:

CMSgt Don Harris, Maj Gen Richard Craig Cosgrave Chiefs Award 2009

SMSgt Carl Scrivani, ANG Individual Weapons Safety Award 2009

SMSgt Dan Mitchell, ANG 1st Sgt of the Year 2008

MSgt June Kelly, 1st Sgt of the Year for the Enlisted Assoc of NJ 2009

SSgt Jamie Tonkinson, NJNG Honor Guard Member of the Year 2009

SrA Brad Ferguson, NJANG Airman of the Year 2009 and 1st AF Airman of the Year 2009

3. These individuals are role models of the character and resolve for excellence that typifies the membership of the 177th FW. That is why I am confident that you will achieve a successful ORI. In October, the IG will make a determination about the quality of our Wing programs. We already know about the quality of you, our people—the human capital in the 177th and our most precious asset. All members, from senior officers to junior enlisted are important in this process.

4. As you begin your final preparations with this last ORE, I know that you will focus on the task at hand and set a new bar for all other ACC gained units in the Air National Guard and the Air Force.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Maria Falca-Dodson".

MARIA FALCA-DODSON
Major General, NJANG
Commander

A MESSAGE FROM THE COMMANDER

Hello All,

I had a chance last week to venture out and check up on the latest preparations for the ORE/ORI. I had the opportunity to speak to many airmen in small groups. I must say that I am impressed with both the effort being put forth and the attitude I've seen. From Maintenance to Civil Engineering, Security Forces to Logistics, Operations to Medical Forces, the entire Fighter Wing is getting it together! Let's keep the momentum going and keep the following words in your mind (I call it the 177th ORI creed): "Safety, Compliance, and Sense of Urgency". Along with our creed, I need all of you to keep two more concepts in mind; perspective and confidence. In our case, perspective means looking at the ORI war as a 72 hour event and not a series of 12 hour shifts. If you think of it that way, you won't be disappointed if you get off shift a little late due to the course of the war. My command staff will do their best to make the shifts flow but the enemy does not act according to our shifts. Confidence means you know your job and you know the requirements of 90-201. It is our job to demonstrate to the IG our superior ability to conduct war-time efforts in compliance with regulatory guidance. It is important to display a level of confidence as part of that effort. Let's prove to ourselves and the IG what we already know: We rock!

Let me take a minute and reflect upon the eighth anniversary of the terrorist attacks of Sept. 11, 2001. There is a synchronicity between the events that happened that day and our ORE preparations today. Many of you remember how this unit jumped into action on that fateful morning: rapid recalls...long shifts...improvising where necessary to overcome any obstacle to completing our mission. Despite the passage of years, our mission has not changed: to protect and defend our nation. Take a moment sometime this drill to honor the memory of the innocent and brave victims of that cowardly and treacherous attack.

Lastly, the Atlantic City Air Show was a great success due in large part to the expertise and diligent effort of this wing's personnel.

Thanks again to everyone who worked hard to make the Air Show the best on the East Coast. Remember, take advantage of this drill's training; the ORI is 3 weeks away!

ROBERT C. BOLTON
Colonel, NJANG
Commander

The 10 Best Ways to Dazzle the IG

- 1. Competence-Know your job inside and out, and perform those duties to the best of your ability despite the inspection scenario or the inspector's glare!
- 2. Responsiveness-Show that "sense of urgency" during every waking moment; lean forward in those starting blocks and then realistically propel yourself into every activity. Anticipate "the next scenario/action". If an inspector general member is suggesting something to you, he/she is putting on their "white hat", and trying to give you some direction. Follow their "suggestion".
- 3. Attitude-Display a positive attitude, recognize that enthusiasm is contagious, and that problems always arise in the "fog of war" and can be overcome! If you make a mistake, recover and press on!
- 4. Readiness-You have trained effectively so you can infallibly perform your duties in peace and war! Bottom line is: You are responsible for yourself!
- 5. Aggressiveness-React authoritatively with Ability to Survive and Operate skills in attack scenarios and with Self-Aid and Buddy Care in medical emergencies. Effectively continue mission essential activities in all FPCON (Force Protection) levels, and treat inspections and exercises as the real thing. Don't give up and press on until told by the IG to stop.
- 6. Appearance-Look people in the eye, pop that sharp salute, and exceed those standards for uniform, boots and hair! We all need to look sharp.
- 7. Safety-Approach duties with a safety-oriented mindset, know when not to press forward on actions because they're unsafe, and apply operational risk management (ORM) techniques to accomplish the mission! If you have a real concern, address it with an Inspector.
- 8. Leadership-Lead by words and actions, formally and informally by motivating, communicating and setting a positive example! If you are a leader or part of a Command element, the IG and I will expect you to lead. Don't be afraid to make a decision.
- 9. Followership-Follow taskings and orders quickly and effectively, employ teambuilding skills, and always keep the "objective" in sight! Do without being asked. If you see a need, do it.
- 10. Pride-Visibly exude pride in yourself, your unit, your mission and the 177th Fighter Wing: Looking good, feeling good, being a winner!

08 SEP 2009

Chief, National Guard Bureau

This Friday marks the eighth anniversary of terrorist attacks on American soil. We will pause and reflect in honor of those who perished on that fateful day. As we remember the events of September 11th, let's also be mindful of the contributions our National Guard Citizen Soldiers and Airmen have made since then to the defense of the Nation.

Overseas, more than 476,000 Guardsmen have mobilized and deployed in support of contingency operations. Here at home, we fly 94 percent of all air defense sorties, provide critical infrastructure support, secure airports, and augment border patrol. We've also established National Guard capabilities that never existed before 9/11, such as Joint Operation Centers and National Guard Reaction Forces. As a result of our proven capabilities and expertise, the National Guard Bureau was made a joint activity of the Department of Defense. This reflects the acknowledgement that the Guard is a recognized force – trained, equipped, accessible, and ready.

These efforts are significant investments in our Nation's security and contribute to the prevention of another attack on American soil.

This Patriot Day, let's not only remember the past, but also look forward to a more secure future thanks to the service of the men and women of the National Guard.

CRAIG R. MCKINLEY
General, USAF
Chief, National Guard Bureau

AIR SHOW WOWS CROWD

U.S. Air Force photo by TSgt James L. Harper, Jr.

2009 AC Airshow photos by MSgt Andrew J. Moseley, 177FW/PA

Grove hosts UAVs

Lt. Col. Thor Himley (l), Commander Warren Grove Range, watches Spc. Nicholas Erdos-Thayer, Unmanned Aerial Vehicle Maintainer, 1-34th Brigade Special Troops Battalion, Minnesota Army National Guard perform maintenance on a Shadow 200 RQ-7 drone on Aug. 11. New Jersey and Minnesota Army National Guard Soldiers trained at the Range to validate it's capabilities to support the training and operational needs of UAV units. Photo by Tech. Sgt. Mark Olsen, 177FW/PA.

Singing for the Chairman

Maj. Gen. Glenn K. Rieth (seventh from right), The Adjutant General of New Jersey, and Adm. Michael Mullen (sixth from right), Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, watch as Tech. Sgt. Susan J. Faucett sings God Bless America at the close of the 30th New Jersey National Guard ChalleNGe Youth Graduation at the War Memorial in Trenton on August 29. Photo by Tech. Sgt. Mark Olsen, 177FW/PA.

Wing gains new JAG

By Maj. Daniel Mitola, 177FW/JA

The 177th Legal Office has the distinction of bringing on board a third Judge Advocate, Capt. David Perrone, who came to the wing from the active duty Army.

Wasting no time once being sworn in, Perrone was tasked to the installation control center where he performs various support functions to the wing commander during the operational readiness exercises and the upcoming operational readiness inspection. Also since being sworn in, Captain Perrone has assisted a number of Airmen with legal issues and provided advice to the commander.

Before joining the 177th, Perrone served for four years of active duty with the United States Army, starting at Fort Jackson. While serving at Fort Jackson, Perrone gained experience in assisting Soldiers with Legal Assistance and Claims issues and was tasked to be the Special Assistant United States Attorney. His assignment just prior to joining the 177th was at Fort Sam Houston where he served as Chief of Domestic Operations Law, Chief of Military Justice, and Chief of Tort Law. In that capacity, Perrone prosecuted several court-martial actions and gained valuable Operations Law experience.

Perrone's training and experience prior to joining the Army included graduating from the University of Connecticut with a Masters in Speech Therapy and a Law Degree from Northwestern University.

Perrone is currently employed as a Contracts and Labor Law Attorney for the Army at Fort Monmouth, which helps him maintain and hone skills that are valuable to the Airmen of the 177 Fighter Wing.

August ORE photos

Photos by Staff Sgt. Matt Hecht, 177FW/PA

JAN FEB MAR APR MAY JUN JUL AUG SEP OCT NOV DEC

SEPTEMBER 2008

Recognize the diversity of our National Guard team

- ✓ Celebrate a multicultural event
- ✓ Identify your diversity successes
- ✓ Recognize, reward and foster leadership

If we are to achieve a richer culture, rich in contrasting values, we must recognize the whole gamut of human potentialities, and so weave a less arbitrary social fabric, one in which each diverse human gift will find a fitting place.

Margaret Mead

GI Bill Reference Guide

Basic Eligibility for Post 9/11 GI Bill, Chapter 33

Minimum 90 days of Title 10 active duty since Sept. 11, 2001 not including basic training, IADT or annual tour. Ninety days but less than six months gives 40 percent of the benefits. The percentage increases by 10 percent with each additional six months of active duty. 100 percent requires 36 months.

Members may be eligible even if they declined or were not eligible for MGIB, Ch 30, or entered military service under the VEAP program (Jan. 1, 1977 through June 30, 1985).

If converting from Ch 30, will receive $1,200 back at the end of using up all benefits of Ch 33. The $600 Buy-Up will not be refunded.

Service Academy, ROTC scholarship and loan repayment members must fulfill those service commitment before having active duty time to qualify for Post 9/11 GI Bill

To use benefits: Member may use while participating and/or 15 years from the end of last active duty period of 90 continuous days or more. Members may estimate benefits at www.military.com/education-home.

Benefits description: Pays tuition and fees up to the highest in-state undergraduate tuition level charged by an in state educational institution.

Housing allowance at the rate of staff sergeant with dependents based on where your school is located. $1,000 stipend for books and supplies per academic year. Housing allowance and stipend are not paid if your program is 100 percent distance learning, you are less than one half time, or you are active duty orders and receiving BAH. Up to 36 months of benefits.

Eligibility to transfer benefits to dependents

In addition to the basic eligibility for Post 9/11, must have a minimum six years active duty or selected reserve participation for transfer to a spouse; 10 years to transfer to dependent child.

Must be selected reserve (not PIRR) on the day of transfer election and the duration of a 4 year service commitment from August 1 2009 or date of transfer election whichever is later.

Exceptions for retirement eligible:

Personnel who have an approved retirement between August 1, 2009 - July 31, 2010 - no additional service required.

Personnel eligible to retire on or before August 1, 2009 - no additional service required.

Personnel eligible to retire between 2 Aug 2009 - July 31, 2010 - one year of additional service is required.

Personnel eligible to retire between 1 Aug 2010 - July 31, 2011 - two years of additional service is required.

Personnel eligible to retire between 1 Aug 2011 - July 31, 2012 - three years of additional service is required.

Dependent child definition: must be listed in DEERS at the time of transfer election, i.e. up to age 21 or 23 if still in school.

To use benefits, the spouse has 15 years from end of last active duty period of 90 continuous days or more. A child may use up to his or her 26th birthday – the 15 year limitation does not apply.

To use benefits, the spouse has 15 years from end of last active duty period of 90 continuous days or more. A child may use up to his or her 26th birthday – the 15 year limitation does not apply.

Benefits description: Spouse does not receive housing allowance if member is receiving BAH. Dependent child will receive housing allowance even if member has BAH.

Application process

Two step process if member is using benefits

1. Go to www.gibill.va.gov, click on GI Bill: Apply for Benefits, then Click HERE for an electronic application form that may be completed and submitted online, and finally Start VONAPP to access the VA 22-1990. This step is required to establish that a reservist has benefits. Reserve and Guard members need to complete this form and attach orders even if they wish to transfer benefits. Member receives email right away confirming receipt of application. Letter of certification will be mailed. May take around 60 days.

2. Coordinate with VA certifying official at the school who will complete a VA 22-1999 certifying to the VA the student's status (i.e. full versus part time).

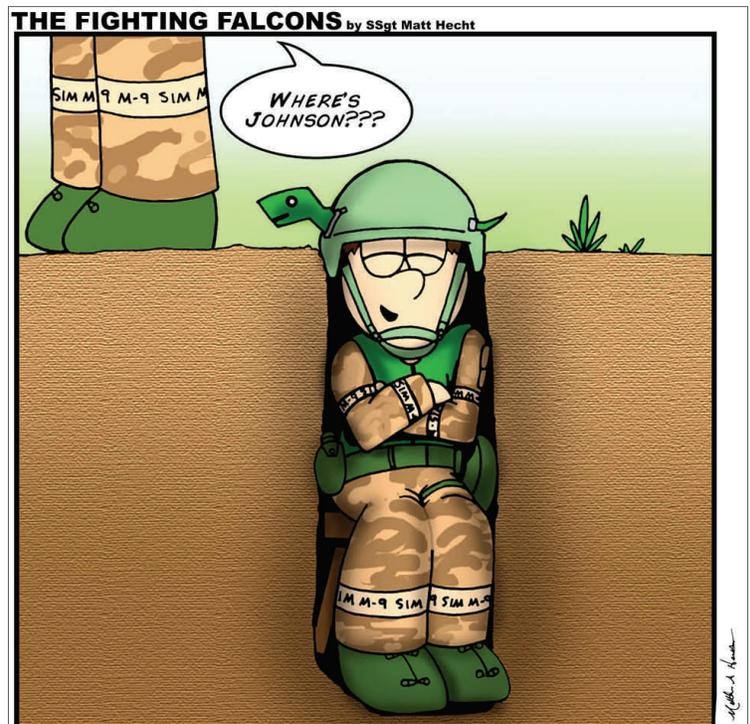

Four step process if dependent is using benefits

1. Member completes VA 22-1990 in VONAPP to certify he/she has benefits that can be transferred.

2. Member makes election to transfer at <https://www.dmdc.osd.mil/TEB>. Air Force Reserve Command will be responsible to determine if reservist or AGR is eligible to transfer. Guard Bureau will handle ANG members. Enlisted will be required to reenlist/extended before eligibility is approved. All members will be required to sign a statement of understanding before approval. The SOU will be stored in ARMS.

3. Once both approvals (VA and AFRC) received student will complete VA 22-1990e (www.gibill.va.gov).

4. Student will coordinate with VA certifying official who will verify to the VA the student's status. 🇺🇸

NEWS AIRMEN CAN USE

Compiled by the 177th Fighter Wing Public Affairs Office

ORI Hotel Reservation Deadline

Unit members who live 30 minutes or more from the base are entitled to a hotel room for the ORI. The deadline for reserving hotel rooms for the Operational Readiness Inspection is Thursday, Sept. 24. Requests must be forwarded through their supervisors/First Sergeants by 12 p.m. on that date. For more information, contact Master Sgt. Jill Kovak at x6295. 📧

Sunglasses and Handbags

From the 177th Military Personnel Flight

More than a few unit members have been observed walking around with sunglasses on the tops of their heads or carrying handbags of various colors.

AFI 36-2903, Dress and Personal Appearance of Air Force Personnel, provides guidance on the wear of sunglasses and appearance of handbags. Specifically, sunglasses are “not worn around the neck or on top/back of head or exposed hanging on the uniform.” The AFI goes on to prescribe conservative ornamentation on frames and lenses of non-prescription sunglasses or eyeglasses and says that “frames may be black or brown material or gold or silver wire.” Brand name glasses may be worn with a small logo on frames or lenses...but the logo must be the same color as the frames or lenses. Conservative, clear, slightly tinted or photo-sensitive lenses are allowed, but faddish styles and mirrored lenses are prohibited.

For handbags and clutch-style purses, the guidance is equally specific: the only approved color is black. The AFI states handbags must be “plain black leather or vinyl without ornamentation, with or without plain fold-over flap with or without single-placed silver or gold-colored clasp. May have up to two adjustable shoulder straps with or without buckles. May be patent leather or high gloss not to exceed 13 x 9 x 4 1/2 inches deep.” For clutch-style, they can be “plain black smooth or scotch-grain leather, patent leather, or high gloss, or manmade material without ornamentation.”

First impressions matter! Whether it's the Inspector General arriving for a formal inspection or a retiree coming on base for an ID card, we want to project an image of professionalism and Air Force pride...reflected in our dress and appearance. Regardless, these are guidelines we must follow as Airmen of the United States Air Force. 📧

Annual dental exam

The Annual Dental Exam, which is required each year, will be completed by your civilian dentist (exceptions include pilots, anyone new to this base, individuals on class three and those who have never been seen by a wing dentist). Start by obtaining a DD Form 2813 from the clinic or it is available on the local area network (K:\FORMS\ DD\2800\dd2813.pdf); have your dentist complete the form and return it to the clinic. 📧

SFRC increases grants

The New Jersey National Guard State Family Readiness Council has increased the amounts of family and business grants up to $5,000 and $10,000, respectively.

Both are what are known as TIER I grants. TIER II family grants are also available to New Jersey Guard non-deployed service members who were on State Active Duty or State Missions (e.g., hurricanes, floods, border missions) for more than 20 consecutive days. Those who meet these criteria can apply for a financial hardship grant up to $1,500.

Applications are available at all New Jersey Army and Air National Guard Family Assistance Centers. Contact Mr. Gunning in Building 229 if you are interested in applying. 609.645.6248.

OPSEC Reminder: TRASHINT

From the 177th OPSEC Program

What is TRASHINT?

TRASHINT is the process of going through discarded papers to find information for use against another party or to use in one's own favor. This affords an adversary with another avenue for collection and action against military operations.

One of the TRASHINT concerns are base recycling programs. While bases make use of recycling program, the materials generated are not disposed of on the installation. Instead the recyclable materials are sold or hauled away to commercial agencies for profit. Once they leave military control, the paper product is open for TRASHINT exploitation.

Make sure you shred all sensitive information. This does not just mean items marked as “classified”. This includes all information deemed as “Critical” to our Wing and all other military operations during real-world and exercise operations.

If you have any questions, contact Capt. Toni Memmelaar at x6206 or Tech. Sgt. Jamie DeCosta at x6088. 📧

Embry-Riddle classes available

Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University has set up a satellite campus program at the Coast Guard Air Station (located on the FAA side of the airport).

The next semester starts Oct. 19. Associate's of Science and Bachelor's of Science in Professional Aeronautics and in Technical Management as well as a Masters of Aeronautical Science are available through the program.

Courses are taught on a nine-week schedule. All courses are three semester credits and require one night per week for four to five hours a night for each class. Classes are not covered under the NJANG free tuition program, but unit members can use the GI Bill. The point of contact USCG Lieutenant James Kenshalo at (609) 813-3871, or james.r.kenshalo@uscg.mil.

Hispanic Americans making the sacrifice

Commentary by Capt. Carlos Diaz, 18th Wing Public Affairs

KADENA AIR BASE, Japan (AFPN) -- Many of us have made the trip from other countries where Spanish is the native language.

Many of us share African, Spanish or Native American roots.

All of us are committed to support and defend the Constitution of the United States against all enemies, foreign and domestic.

We are Hispanic Americans serving in the military.

From the Civil War to the war on terrorism, people from places like Mexico, Spain, the Caribbean and South America have fought bravely to defend our country against those who hate our way of life and the United States of America. Many of our parents, and even some of us, have made the sacrifice of leaving the places we grew up to adopt and cherish a new culture with a new language that values the freedom of all men and women. This country has given us the opportunity to provide better lives for our families and to share our culture and make a contribution to America's future.

Among those who have gone above and beyond in the defense of our country, are 39 Hispanic-American Medal of Honor recipients. Names like Army Master Sgt. Roy Benavidez, who despite his severe wounds saved the lives of at least eight men while serving in Vietnam.

Marine Pfc. Fernando Luis-Garcia did not hesitate to jump on top of and cover with his body an enemy grenade to protect his fellow Marines while serving in Korea. And Army Cpl.

United States Air Force Presents Hispanic Heritage Month

Benito Martínez who manned his listening post despite imminent danger while serving in Satae-Ri, Korea. These servicemembers exemplify the sacrifices of Hispanic Americans fighting in the U.S. military.

Never in my lifetime would I have imagined that after leaving Puerto Rico, I was going to be in the forefront of the war on terrorism and be able to provide comfort to those who lost everything they had after the 2004 tsunami in the Pacific.

Now that I think about it, I probably thought about serving my country. I remember the stories of many veterans who would sit and chat with my grandfather about their experiences during the Korean and Vietnam conflicts, while he waited for his medical appointment at a veteran's hospital.

Like my story, there are another 200,000 stories of sacrifice and courage like the ones I heard at that hospital a long time ago. Those stories are being written in Spanish and English, they sound like salsa merengue and mariachis; they taste like pozole, plantains and enchiladas; they all feel and smell like freedom.

Thousands of Hispanic Americans have given their lives to defend our way of life and have paved the way for me and other Hispanic-American servicemembers and civilians who have followed their example.

To the ones who went before us and opened doors to people like me, and to the country that has accepted our cultures and given us our way of life -- Gracias! 🇺🇸

New Jersey National Guard

17th Annual Unity Day Celebration

Thursday, September 17, 2009

1130 -1530 hrs

Joint Training & Training Development Center (JT2DC)
Bldg 3601, Fort Dix, NJ

Fun Walk/Run: 0830 hrs @ JT2DC
Blood Drive: 1000 - 1500 hrs @ JT2DC

*Come celebrate our ethnic and cultural diversity through music, food sampling, giveaways, homemade dessert contest, scavenger hunt,
and line dancing!*

Contact person: Captain Barbara Brown-Wilson
(609) 562-0856 or barbara.g.brown@us.army.mil